KLÖCKNER & CO LAUNCHES CONVERTIBLE BOND OFFERING

Duisburg, December 16, 2010 – The Management Board of Klöckner & Co SE (“Klöckner & Co”) resolved today, with consent of the Supervisory Board, to issue unsubordinated unsecured convertible bonds (the “Bonds”). The Bonds will be issued by Klöckner & Co Financial Services S.A. (the “Issuer”), a wholly-owned Luxembourg subsidiary of Klöckner & Co, guaranteed by Klöckner & Co, and will be convertible into new or existing shares of Klöckner & Co. The Bonds will be offered only to institutional investors outside of the U.S. The pre-emptive rights of shareholders of Klöckner & Co to subscribe to the Bonds are excluded. Klöckner & Co intends to use the proceeds from the issue of the Bonds for its stated external expansion strategy “Klöckner & Co 2020” and general corporate purposes.

The offering size will be approximately EUR 185 million with up to 6,650,000 shares underlying the Bonds. The Bonds will have a maturity of 7 years and will be issued at 100% of the principal amount. Settlement and delivery of the Bonds are expected to take place on 22 December 2010 (the “Settlement Date”). The conversion price will be set at a premium between 30 % and 35 % above the volume weighted average XETRA price of Klöckner & Co’s shares between the time the Management Board resolved on the issue of the Bonds and the final allotment which is also intended to take place later today. The coupon is expected to be between 2.50 % and 3.00 % per annum and, as the conversion premium, will be determined during a bookbuilding process planned to take place today. Holders of the Bonds will be entitled to require an early redemption of the Bonds on the fifth anniversary after the Settlement Date at the principal amount together with accrued interest. The Issuer cannot call the Bonds for redemption before the fifth anniversary of the Settlement Date, and thereafter only if the share price of Klöckner & Co (over a specified period) exceeds 130% of the then prevailing conversion price.

Klöckner & Co intends to include the Bonds to trading in the Open Market (Freiverkehr) segment of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

Credit Suisse and Goldman Sachs International are acting as Joint Bookrunners, Joint Lead-Managers and sole syndicate members for the offering.

In connection with this transaction there has not been, nor will there be, any public offering of the Bonds. No prospectus will be prepared in connection with the offering of the Bonds. The Bonds may not be offered to the public in any jurisdiction in circumstances which would require the Issuer of the Bonds to prepare or register any prospectus or offering document relating to the Bonds in such jurisdiction. The distribution of this ad-hoc announcement and the offer and sale of the Bonds in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Any persons reading this ad-hoc announcement should inform themselves of and observe any such restrictions.

From the announcement of the final terms of the Bonds, the Joint Bookrunners may, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with applicable laws and directives, effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Bonds and the Shares at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. Such stabilising, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time and must be brought to an end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the settlement date and 60 days after the date of allotment of the Bonds. If commenced, such stabilising may lead to a market price of the Bonds or the Shares which may be higher than the level that would exist if no such stabilising measures were taken and may indicate to the market a price stability which without such stabilising might not prevail. However, there is no obligation on the Joint Bookrunners to engage in such stabilisation activities and such stabilisation, if commenced (which may not occur before the final terms of the Bonds have been announced), may be discontinued at any time.
